*THE FISCAL YEAR FOR THE UNIFIED JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF ALABAMA IS FROM OCTOBER 1 THRU SEPTEMBER 30.

Alabama's Unified Judicial System

The Judicial Article Implementation Act (Act 1205) of 1975 revised the Alabama Court System and prescribed the pattern for its operation.

The major changes included:

- Over 400 trial courts were reorganized into a unified system.
- Judges were required to be lawyers (Probate Judges excluded).
- Uniform jurisdictions were established for all trial courts.
- Judges were prohibited from re-election or appointment after age 70.
- Authority was granted to the Supreme Court to adopt rules pertaining to the administration of courts governing practice and procedure.
- Provisions provided for the adoption of "Canons of Judicial Ethics."
- Provisions were made for the flexible assignment of judges.
- A central judicial administration system was built into the Constitution.
- Provisions were made for a Judicial Compensation Commission.
- A Judicial Inquiry Commission and a Court of the Judiciary were created.

Amendment 328 of the Alabama Constitution of 1901 further provided for the exclusive judicial power of the State to be vested in a Unified Judicial System, to become effective January 17, 1977. Today, the Alabama Supreme Court, Court of Criminal Appeals, Court of Civil Appeals and the Administrative Office of Courts all operate from within a single location in Montgomery, Alabama.

The Alabama Supreme Court, Alabama's court of last resort, is composed of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices. All members of the Court are elected in statewide elections to six-year terms. The Supreme Court has general supervisory authority over all courts in the State and the power to review any judgment of these courts. In addition, the Supreme Court has the authority to make administrative rules and regulations to ensure the efficient and speedy administration of justice.

To facilitate the decision-making process, the Supreme Court has traditionally been divided into two divisions with a panel of four justices each. The Chief Justice sits on both divisions. If the five members of a division disagree on the disposition of a particular case, the case must be submitted to the entire Court for resolution. The Court's internal rules require consideration by the full Court of petitions for certiorari review in capital cases in which the death penalty is imposed, cases declaring a statute unconstitutional, advisory opinions to the Governor or the Legislature, utility rate cases; cases overruling a previous decision of the Supreme Court, and petitions for certiorari review in instances where the Supreme Court is reversing a judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals or the Court of Civil Appeals.

Court of Criminal Appeals

The Alabama Court of Criminal Appeals is a five-judge court having exclusive appellate jurisdiction of all criminal cases, including all post-conviction writs arising from there. The Court has authority to issue remedial writs necessary to give it general superintendence and control over all trial courts exercising jurisdiction in criminal proceedings. Judgments of the Court of Criminal Appeals are subject to discretionary review by the Alabama Supreme Court.

Filings - During the 2004 Term, the Court of Criminal Appeals had a total caseload of 3,217 cases, of which 2,178 were new filings. The 2,178 new filings in the 2004 Term represents a 4.9% drop in filings from the previous term and an 18% drop in filings from the number of filings five years earlier. Besides the drop in filings, the Court also experienced a 16% reduction in personnel at the outset of the term (from 42 to 35 people effective October 1, 2003) due to a 10% reduction in funding for the 2004 Fiscal Year. Even with the drop in filings in the 2004 Term, the Court of Criminal Appeals still has one of the highest per judge caseloads among all intermediate appellate courts in the United States. With 436 filings per judge in the 2004 Term, the per judge caseload for this Court is more than double the national average of 189 filings per judge according to the latest intermediate appellate court caseload statistics available through the National Center for State Courts (current through 2002).

For the second year in a row, the Court issued more than 1,900 decisions in submitted cases.

Dispositions - In the 2004 Term, the Court disposed of 2,184 cases - 1,742 appeals and 442 petitions. Because the Court's throughput in the 2004 Term was at 100%, the Court started the 2005 Term with 1,033 pending cases, the lowest pending caseload at the start of a new term in the last 15 years. This represents the third consecutive year that the Court of Criminal Appeals has managed to achieve a case throughput in excess of 100%.

Decisions - The Court of Criminal Appeals issued 1,452 decisions in submitted appeals during the 2004 Term. Of these decisions, judgments were affirmed in 1,190 appeals; judgments were reversed and causes were remanded in 48 appeals; judgments were reversed and the causes were rendered in two appeals; 73 appeals were dismissed; 119 appeals were remanded to the trial courts with directions; and four appeals were affirmed in part and reversed in part. Written opinions were released in 180 appeals and in 15 original petitions. Memorandum decisions were released in 1,182 appeals. Out of the 442 original petitions that were disposed in the 2004 Term, 29 petitions (6.6% of the total) were granted by the Court either in whole or in part.

Time Standards - In 1989 the Supreme Court, by order, set as a goal in direct appeal cases a 280-day time standard that ran from notice of appeal or the filing of a petition to the initial decision. In April 1995, the original goal was modified to conform to the Time Standards Reference Models recommended by the American Bar Association. The current goal is to issue rulings in 75 percent of all cases within 290 days from their start and in 95 percent of all cases within 365 days. In the 2004 Term, 94.4 percent of all the initial decisions by the Court of Criminal Appeals were released within the 290-day goal and 97.5 percent were released within 365-day goal. In this term, the average time from start to initial decision in submitted cases decreased by five days, from 194 days in the 2003 Term to 189 days in the 2004 Term.

During FY 2004, the court disposed of 1,225 cases: 287 were decided with opinion; 512 affirmed without opinion, and 426 disposed before submission. The average time from notice of appeal to written opinion was 256 days, compared to 244 days for FY 2003.

Of the 799 cases disposed by opinion and summary affirmance, the Court affirmed the judgment of 74.47%; reversed the judgment in 12.89%; in 6.38% of the cases the judgment was affirmed in part and reversed in part, and 6.26% were disposed by dismissal or other reason.

Applications For Rehearing- An application for rehearing is the method by which one, or both, of the parties requests the court to reconsider its earlier decision in a case. Of the 799 cases that were disposed by submission and decision, 237 applications for rehearing were filed. Approximately 96.2% of the cases on rehearing had no change.

Review by Supreme Court of Alabama- The Supreme Court ruled on 274 petitions for certiorari from the Court of Civil Appeals during FY 2004. Approximately 80.7% of those decisions were upheld by the Supreme Court.

The Alabama Supreme Court and State Law Library is the oldest law library in Alabama. Established in 1828 as the Library Society of the Bench and Bar of the Supreme Court, it was a private, nonprofit organization with the purpose of providing a library for the "exclusive use of the Bench and Bar of the Supreme Court of the State." Today, the Law Library, a state agency, serves the Alabama Supreme Court, the Courts of Criminal and Civil Appeals, and all citizens of the State.

The Law Library has approximately 230,000 volumes in its collection, making it the second largest law library in the state. The Library is also one of the oldest U.S. Government Depository libraries in the United States, having been designated a depository in 1884. Currently, the Law Library occupies approximately 38,000 square feet. It is a public law library, and its hours of operation are 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The Law Library collection contains all of the reported decisions of the state and federal appellate courts in the United States, and the statutes of all 50 states and the District of Columbia, plus Acts of Congress, the United States Code and the regulations of the various agencies of the U.S. Government. The Law Library's legal periodical collection is one of the best in the State with more than 1000 titles, while its rare book collection is considered one of the finest in the Southeastern United States. Unique to the collection are the briefs of Alabama Supreme Court cases beginning in 1965 and the papers of the Alabama Judicial College.

Beyond the role of the traditional library, the Supreme Court and State Law Library continues to pursue a strategic plan to remain on the forefront of technology. To this end, the Law Library provides public access to WESTLAW, a computer-assisted legal research service, so that all users can use WESTLAW in the Law Library at no cost to them. In this same way, the Law Library provides WESTLAW access to the entire judicial branch of government so that judges, clerks, and other judicial branch employees will have access to legal information at their fingertips. Additionally, the Law Library has its own computerized public access catalog known as Aladdin, which includes the online catalogs of the Jefferson County Public Law Library, the Montgomery County Public Law Library, and the Elbert Parsons Public Law Library in Huntsville. Aladdin can be accessed from the Law Library web site, www.alalinc.net.

The Law Library also maintains Alalinc, an information service providing access to electronic copies of Alabama's appellate court opinions as they are released. Opinions are fully searchable using an advanced search engine that allows users a large range of search capabilities. The Law Library manages a state-of-the-art computer training lab equipped with workstations to accommodate an instructor and up to 18 students. Library staff offers classes in basic computing, word processing, and Internet usage, while judicial branch agencies use the lab to train numerous state and local officials on various automation systems.

The Law Library serves as the archives for the appellate courts and is responsible for preserving and disseminating the judicial history of Alabama. The various museum areas and exhibits throughout the building are designed and created by law library staff, who also coordinate all judicial building tours.

Administrative Office of Courts

The Chief Justice of the Alabama Supreme Court is the chief administrative officer of the State's court system and is authorized to appoint an Administrative Director of Courts and other personnel to assist him in the performance of his administrative responsibilities. This constitutionally-created administration overseeing Alabama's Unified Judiciary is called the Administrative Office of Courts.

The Alabama Unified Judicial System is a state-funded court system consisting of the Supreme Court and two intermediate courts of appeal, the Court of Civil Appeals and the Court of Criminal Appeals. The system also includes the trial courts of general jurisdiction (the Circuit Courts) and the courts of limited jurisdiction (the District Courts, the Probate Courts, and the Municipal Courts). The Administrative Office of Courts (AOC), under the direction of the Administrative Director of Courts, is charged with providing the centralized, state-level administrative support necessary to the operation of the State court system, which includes the development of improved procedures and systems to increase the operational capacity of the courts, the collection and dissemination of information necessary for the development of policy and the efficient operation of the courts. Alabama was one of the first states in the nation to have a unified state court system with uniform procedures and centralized administrative services. The Unified Judicial System of Alabama has been in existence since 1977.

The Administrative Office of Courts carries out its responsibilities through a network of specialized divisions. This necessary link within the court system successfully implements plans addressing the training, educational and developmental needs of officials and employees of the Unified Judicial System. These tasks are implemented in part by and through the Alabama Judicial College, along with the support of statewide technological expertise and implementation of the Management Information Systems Division. The AOC also houses basic support departments such as Personnel and Finance, but there exists more specialized departments such as the Family Court Division (est. June 2001), the Trial Court Services Division and the Legal Division.

The AOC is most specifically made up of talented individuals from many walks of life serving the needs of their fellow citizens.

Alabama was one of the first states with a unified state court system along with uniform procedures and centralized administrative services.

Administrative Office of Courts

Divisions

Personnel

The Personnel Division provides services for the Unified Judicial System officials (at the appellate and local level), their employees, trial court officials and employees, and the Administrative Office of Courts' staff.

Personnel maintains thousands of employment records and coordinates human resources for the trial courts, including: recruiting, testing, appointments, evaluations, discipline, benefits, retirement and other separations for over 300 elected officials. Payroll and leave accounts are audited by this division, merit raises are coordinated, and pay and classification recommendations are initiated. Training and counseling on employment situations and coordination with the Legal Division for disposition of a variety of issues are important aspects of the Personnel Division. The payroll function was moved into the Personnel Division during FY 2004, and continues to process payroll for entire UJS.

Finance

The Finance Division is comprised of the following sections: expense accounting, grants, budgets, purchasing, payroll, the print shop, records and space management. In addition to fulfilling responsibilities in these areas, the Finance Division also provides technical assistance to the trial courts, resolves questions regarding appropriate dockets, fees and fines, and serves as liaison with the appellate courts regarding fiscal matters.

Legal

The Legal Division is responsible for providing the Chief Justice, the Administrative Director of Courts, circuit and district judges, clerks and AOC division directors with assistance in legal matters relating to the daily operation and administration of the Unified Judicial System. The attorneys on staff provide legal research to judges and other court officials in addition to providing them general legal opinions, updates on changes in statutory law and appellate court decisions, court manuals and approved UJS forms. The Legal Division also works cooperatively with the Attorney General's office in providing Attorney General opinions that may impact the UJS and request for assistance for legal representation for UJS officials.

The legal division is also responsible for reviewing all court related legislative bills, tracking and monitoring those bills that will have an impact on the UJS.

training opportunities and events, schedules classrooms and provides all logistical support for meetings and education.

As a whole, this branch of the court system successfully implements plans addressing the training, educational and developmental needs of officials and employees of the Unified Judicial System.

Administrative Office of Courts

Divisions

Management Information Systems

Management Information Systems provides the support necessary for the day-to-day business operations of the Unified Judicial System both in the trial courts and the Administrative Office of Courts. The Management Information Systems aids the enhancement of administrative functions using technology and coordinates with state agencies regarding sharing of services and information. This division also provides centralized child support processing for the state, which allows for interfacing with the Department of Human Resources. The Management Information Systems makes available public information to the criminal justice community, social and juvenile services and the public as a whole. Management Information Systems offers on-line services to all 67 counties at all court sites, juvenile offices and pardon and parole offices. Finally, Management Information Systems maintains current UJS applications as well as new developments and upgrades.

Trial Court Services Division

The Trial Court Services Division provides five areas of service to the AOC. First, this division offers court administration technical assistance in automation, case management, jury management, uniform traffic ticket procedures, and educational support. Second, this division provides a liaison between court and legislative officials on court-related matters. Trial Court Services Division oversees judicial assignments when a judge has recused or cannot serve for some other reason. Fourth, this division oversees the statewide imaging program for the condensing of judicial records and gives assistance to State Municipal Courts and the UJS magistrate program. Finally, this division compiles statewide trial court statistics.

Divisions Continued

Alabama Judicial College/Family Court Services Divisions

The Family Court Division provides services in seven different, but related, areas for the state judicial system. The goal of this division is to provide a wide array of services to assist families coming into the court system in Alabama.

First, staff assists judges and clerks in the development of unified family court systems, as requested. Technical assistance was provided to several circuits in 2004 to initiate family courts. Second, this division oversees the Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Program by developing contracts with 19 counties for court referees to assist judges. This program is a collaborative effort between the AOC and the Department of Human Resources (DHR). Third, staff also works with the state DHR to provide timely processing of dependency cases and to ensure that dependent children are placed in safe, permanent homes as quickly as possible through the Court Improvement Project. Fourth, this division manages the federal Access and Visitation Grant program to improve non-custodial parents access to and visitation with their children. Using a broad-based committee of professionals and advocates, literature for children and parents have been produced and mediators have been trained to assist in this process. Fifth, staff have developed and maintained the Judicial Volunteer Program in twelve counties. Over 291 volunteers statewide have contributed at least 3,500 hours of their time to Juvenile Conference Committees to intervene with troubled youth as an alternative to traditional court sanctions. They have also developed a group of volunteers who provide mediation in small claims cases. There are 95 volunteers who have contributed over 1,000 hours to this project. Sixth, this division manages the State Juvenile Probation Officer Program including establishment of statewide guidelines, certification and training standards. Finally, this division administers the Court Referral Education and Court Referral Officer programs to work with defendants with substance abuse problems. Over 27,055 defendants were evaluated and referred for education or treatment in 2004. Of these defendants, 6,939 were placed in the Level I education program, 10,463 were placed in the Level II education programs. The AOC certifies and contracts with 29 agencies to provide this education and 98 CROs to evaluate defendants and provide monitoring sessions throughout the state. This also involves coordination with community correction programs and drug courts across the state.

The Alabama Judicial College develops and coordinates conferences for officials and employees of the circuit, district & municipal courts. Staff work with each court association to develop agendas and training outlines. They also offer orientation programs for judges and clerks. The Judicial College coordinates monthly calendars of internal/external training opportunities, events, and meetings. They schedule classrooms and provide all logistical support for meetings in and outside the judicial building.

Budget of the Judiciary

The Finance Division at AOC is comprised of the following sections: expenses accounting (payment of purchases and services), purchasing (requisition and approval of purchases), grants management, payroll, printing, and the budget.

Budget responsibilities includes preparation of the budget request, preparation of an in-house working budget called the operations plan, and the management of that plan through the year. The budget request is submitted to the governor annually for review and for his judicial budget recommendation. His recommendation is included in the executive budget presented to the legislature where it can be enacted into law as recommended or as they see fit to alter. Once the budget becomes law, the operations plan is developed at a spending level that can maintain operations throughout the fiscal year.

Total Judicial Budget	$146,153,812.00	$137,444,823.00	($8,708,989.00)

*Figures reflected do not include additional conditional appropriations.

Due to a funding crisis in FY 2004 general fund, the Unified Judicial System received the largest budget cut in its history. The FY 2004 legislature appropriated a budget that was $13 million below the previous year's budget. As a result, FY 2004 experienced the continuance of severe cutbacks in UJS operations initiated in FY 2003 because of that year's budget shortage. In addition, the UJS laid-off 212 employees that worked in the circuit clerks' offices and 180 employees who worked in the judges' offices. A conditional appropriation released in late February of 2004 provided seven months of funding for the recall or hiring of 129 of the clerks' employees and 111 of the judges' employees. One-hundred and fifty two positions remained vacant throughout the year from the initial lay-off.

The chart below shows an overall decline in the budget since FY 1986 when mandated cost increases are considered. In FY 2004, the UJS budget was $13.2 million less than the FY 1986 general fund budget after mandates.

Judicial Inquiry Commission and Court of the Judiciary

The Judicial Inquiry Commission has nine members. The Supreme Court appoints one appellate judge. The Circuit Judges' Association appoints two circuit judges. The Lieutenant Governor appoints one district judge who is subject to Senate confirmation. Two attorneys are appointed by the Board of Bar Commissioners. Three non-lawyer citizens are appointed by the Governor, subject to Senate confirmation. Commission members are appointed for terms of four years.

The Judicial Inquiry Commission considers and investigates complaints of misconduct made against judges of the State Judicial System. It has authority to receive and initiate its own complaints, conduct investigations, and file and prosecute complaints in the Court of the Judiciary. These complaints charge violations of the Alabama Canons of Judicial Ethics, misconduct in office, or failure to perform judicial duties. The Commission also renders advisory opinions to judges if needed.

The Court of the Judiciary is a nine-member body that hears complaints filed by the Judicial Inquiry Commission. The Court is composed of one judge from an appellate court, other than the Supreme Court of Alabama, who shall be selected by the Supreme Court of Alabama and shall serve as Chief Judge of the Court of the Judiciary. The Court also includes two judges from the circuit courts, who shall be selected by the Circuit Judges' Association; one district judge who shall be selected by the District Judges' Association; two members of the State Bar who shall be selected by the governing body of the Alabama State Bar; two persons who are not lawyers who shall be appointed by the Governor; and one person appointed by the Lieutenant Governor. Members appointed by the Governor and Lieutenant Governor shall be subject to Senate confirmation before serving.

The Court has the authority to enter the following sanctions for a violation of a Canon of Judicial Ethics: removal from office, suspension with or without pay, censure, retirement of a judge or such other sanctions as may be prescribed by law.

Decisions of the Court of the Judiciary may be appealed to the Supreme Court of Alabama, which reviews the record of proceedings on the law and the facts. The Supreme Court of Alabama adopts rules governing the procedures of the Court of the Judiciary. Counsel for the prosecution of cases before the Court of the Judiciary is provided by the State Attorney General's Office. The Clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals serves as secretary of the Court of the Judiciary.

One complaint was filed with the Court by the Judicial Inquiry Commission during FY 2004.

Circuit, District, Municipal & Probate

The Alabama Constitution, in addition to providing for the appellate courts of the State, provides for a trial court of general jurisdiction known as the Circuit Court; a trial court of limited jurisdiction known as the District Court; a Probate Court and such Municipal Courts as may be provided by law.

The State of Alabama is now divided into 41 judicial circuits, numbered and composed of counties. A 41st Circuit was created during fiscal year 2001 when the circuit formerly known as the 30th Judicial Circuit was split. Jury trials within the State of Alabama occur at the circuit court level.

There is an office of the circuit clerk in each of the 67 counties and one in the Bessemer Division of Jefferson County. The duties of the circuit clerks include the issuance of process and the maintenance of all court records. The circuit clerk is responsible for the same duties as they apply to the district court when there is no clerk appointed to that office. There is currently only one district clerk in the State of Alabama.

Sessions of the district court are required to be held in each county seat. Although the district court is considered to be a "court of record," transcripts or reports of the proceedings of this Court are not required by law. All cases are tried without a jury.

Any given municipality of the State of Alabama, if it elects to do so, holds its own court proceedings according to the limitations provided by law. If the municipal court is abolished by that governing body, jurisdiction is transferred to the appropriate district court.

The probate courts in each county of the State have original and general jurisdictions over very specific matters delineated by statute. While constitutionally a part of the Alabama Judicial System, the probate courts are not included in the system's budget and are administered locally by the respective probate judge. Funding is generated through the county governments or through fees generated in probate court.
