Rich Hobson
Administrative Director of Courts

Dear Chief Justice Moore:

In accordance with §12-5-10, Code of Alabama 1975, I am pleased to submit, on behalf of the Administrative Office of Courts, the 2013 Annual Report for the Alabama Unified Judicial System. This report is an overview of the events and a compendium of statistical data for the period from October 1, 2012, through September 30, 2013.

The accomplishments made during FY 2013 reflect the dedication of judges, circuit clerks, and employees of the Alabama Unified Judicial System to the administration of justice and the management of judicial processes.

I hope this report provides the citizens of Alabama with an increased understanding of the judicial system and a reassurance that our courts are providing judicial services in an effective and cost-efficient manner.

Sincerely,

Rich Hobson
Administrative Director of Courts

ALABAMA'S UNIFIED JUDICIAL SYSTEM

The Judicial Article Implementation Act of 1975 (Act No. 1975-1205) revised the Alabama Court System and prescribed the pattern for its operation. The major changes included:

- Over four hundred trial courts were reorganized into a unified system;
- Judges were required to be attorneys, with the exception of probate judges;
- Uniform jurisdictions were established for all trial courts;
- Judges were prohibited from re-election or appointment after the age of seventy;
- Authority was granted to the Supreme Court of Alabama to adopt rules pertaining to the administration of courts as well as governing practice and procedure;
- Provisions for the adoption of the Canons of Judicial Ethics;
- Provisions for the flexible assignment of judges;
- A central judicial administration system was built into the Alabama Constitution;
- Provisions for a Judicial Compensation Commission; and
- The creation of the Judicial Inquiry Commission and the Court of the Judiciary.

Amendment 328 of the Alabama Constitution of 1901 further provided for the exclusive judicial power of the State to be vested in a Unified Judicial System, to become effective January 17, 1977. Today, the Supreme Court of Alabama, the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Court of Civil Appeals, and the Administrative Office of Courts all operate within a single location in Montgomery, Alabama.

The Alabama Constitution, in addition to providing for the appellate courts of the State, provides for a trial court of general jurisdiction, known as the circuit court; a trial court for limited jurisdiction known as the district court; a probate court; and such municipal courts as may be provided by law.

The State of Alabama is divided into 41 judicial circuits, numbered and composed of counties in the same region. Jury trials within the State of Alabama occur at the circuit court level.

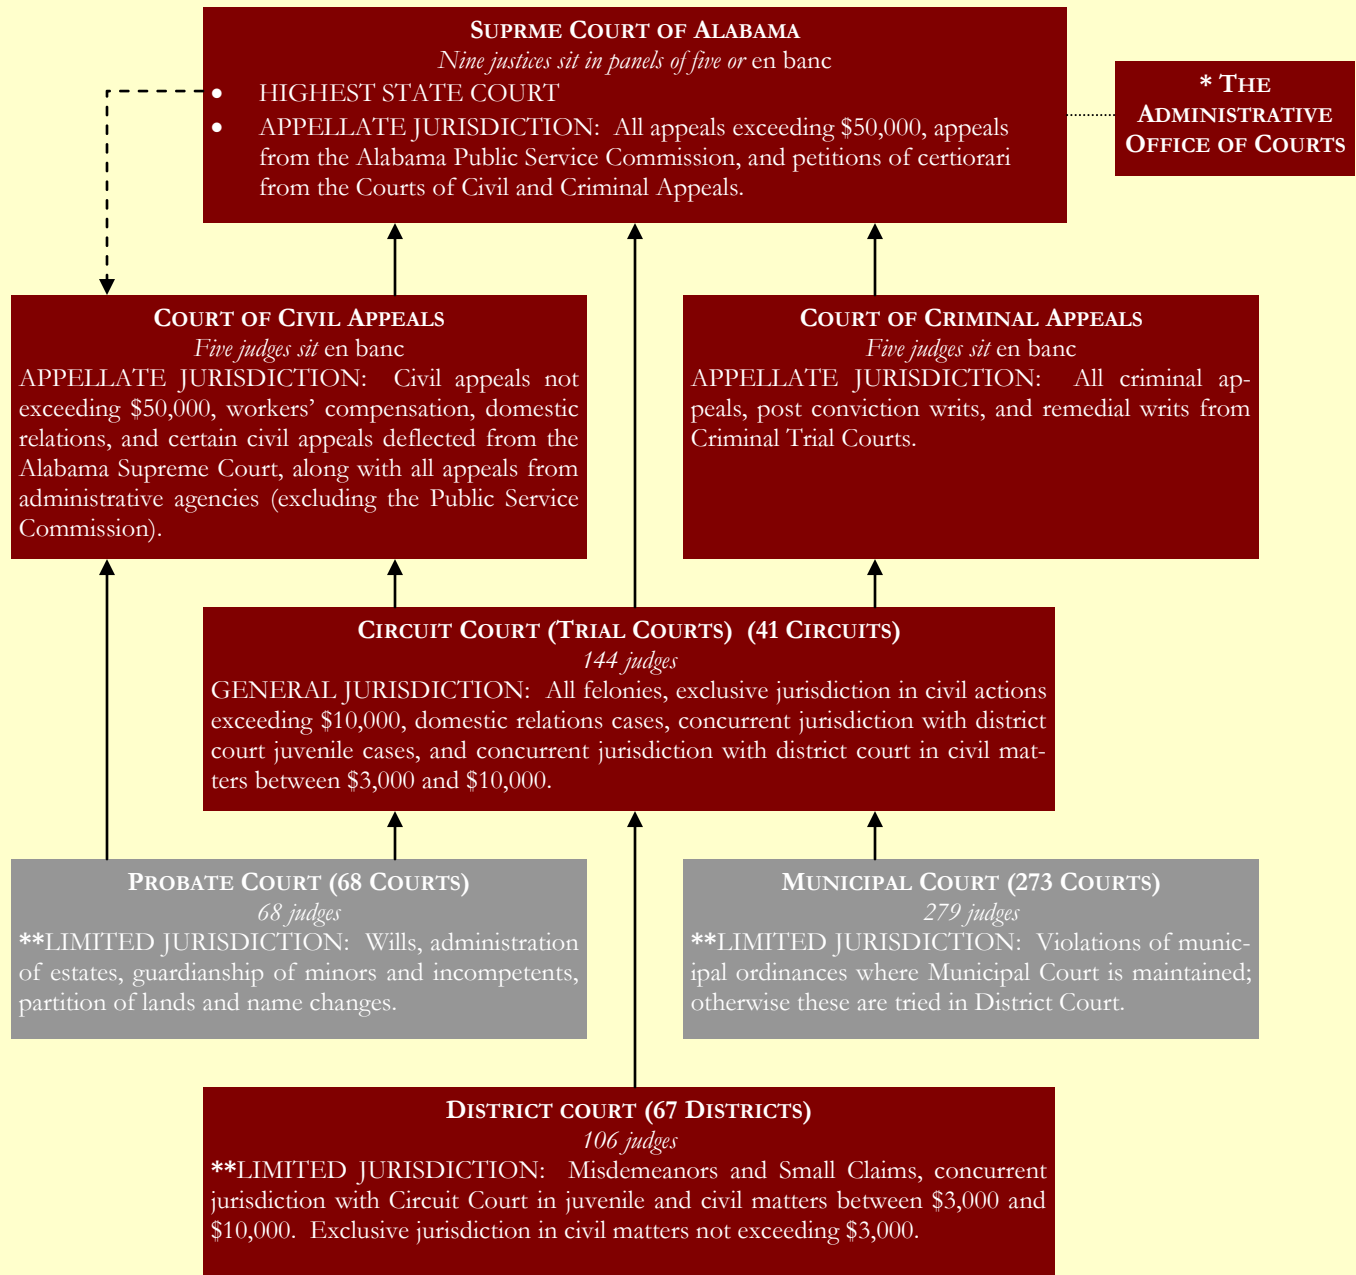

There is an office of the circuit clerk in each of the sixty-seven counties and one in the Bessemer Division of Jefferson County. The duties of the circuit clerk includes the filing, processing, and maintenance of all court records. The circuit clerk is responsible for the same duties as they apply to the district court when there is no clerk appointed to the office of district clerk. There is currently only one district clerk in the State of Alabama.

Sessions of the district court are required to be held in each county seat. Although the district court is considered to be a “court of record,” transcripts or reports of the court proceedings are not required by law. All cases are tried without a jury.

Any given municipality of the State of Alabama, if it elects to do so, holds its own court proceedings according to the limitations provided by law. If the municipal court is abolished by that governing body, jurisdiction is transferred to the appropriate district court.

The probate courts in each county of the State have original and general jurisdictions over very specific matters delineated by statute. While constitutionally a part of the Alabama Judicial System, the probate courts are not included in the system’s budget and are administered locally by the respective probate judge. Funding is generated through the county governments or through fees generated in probate court.

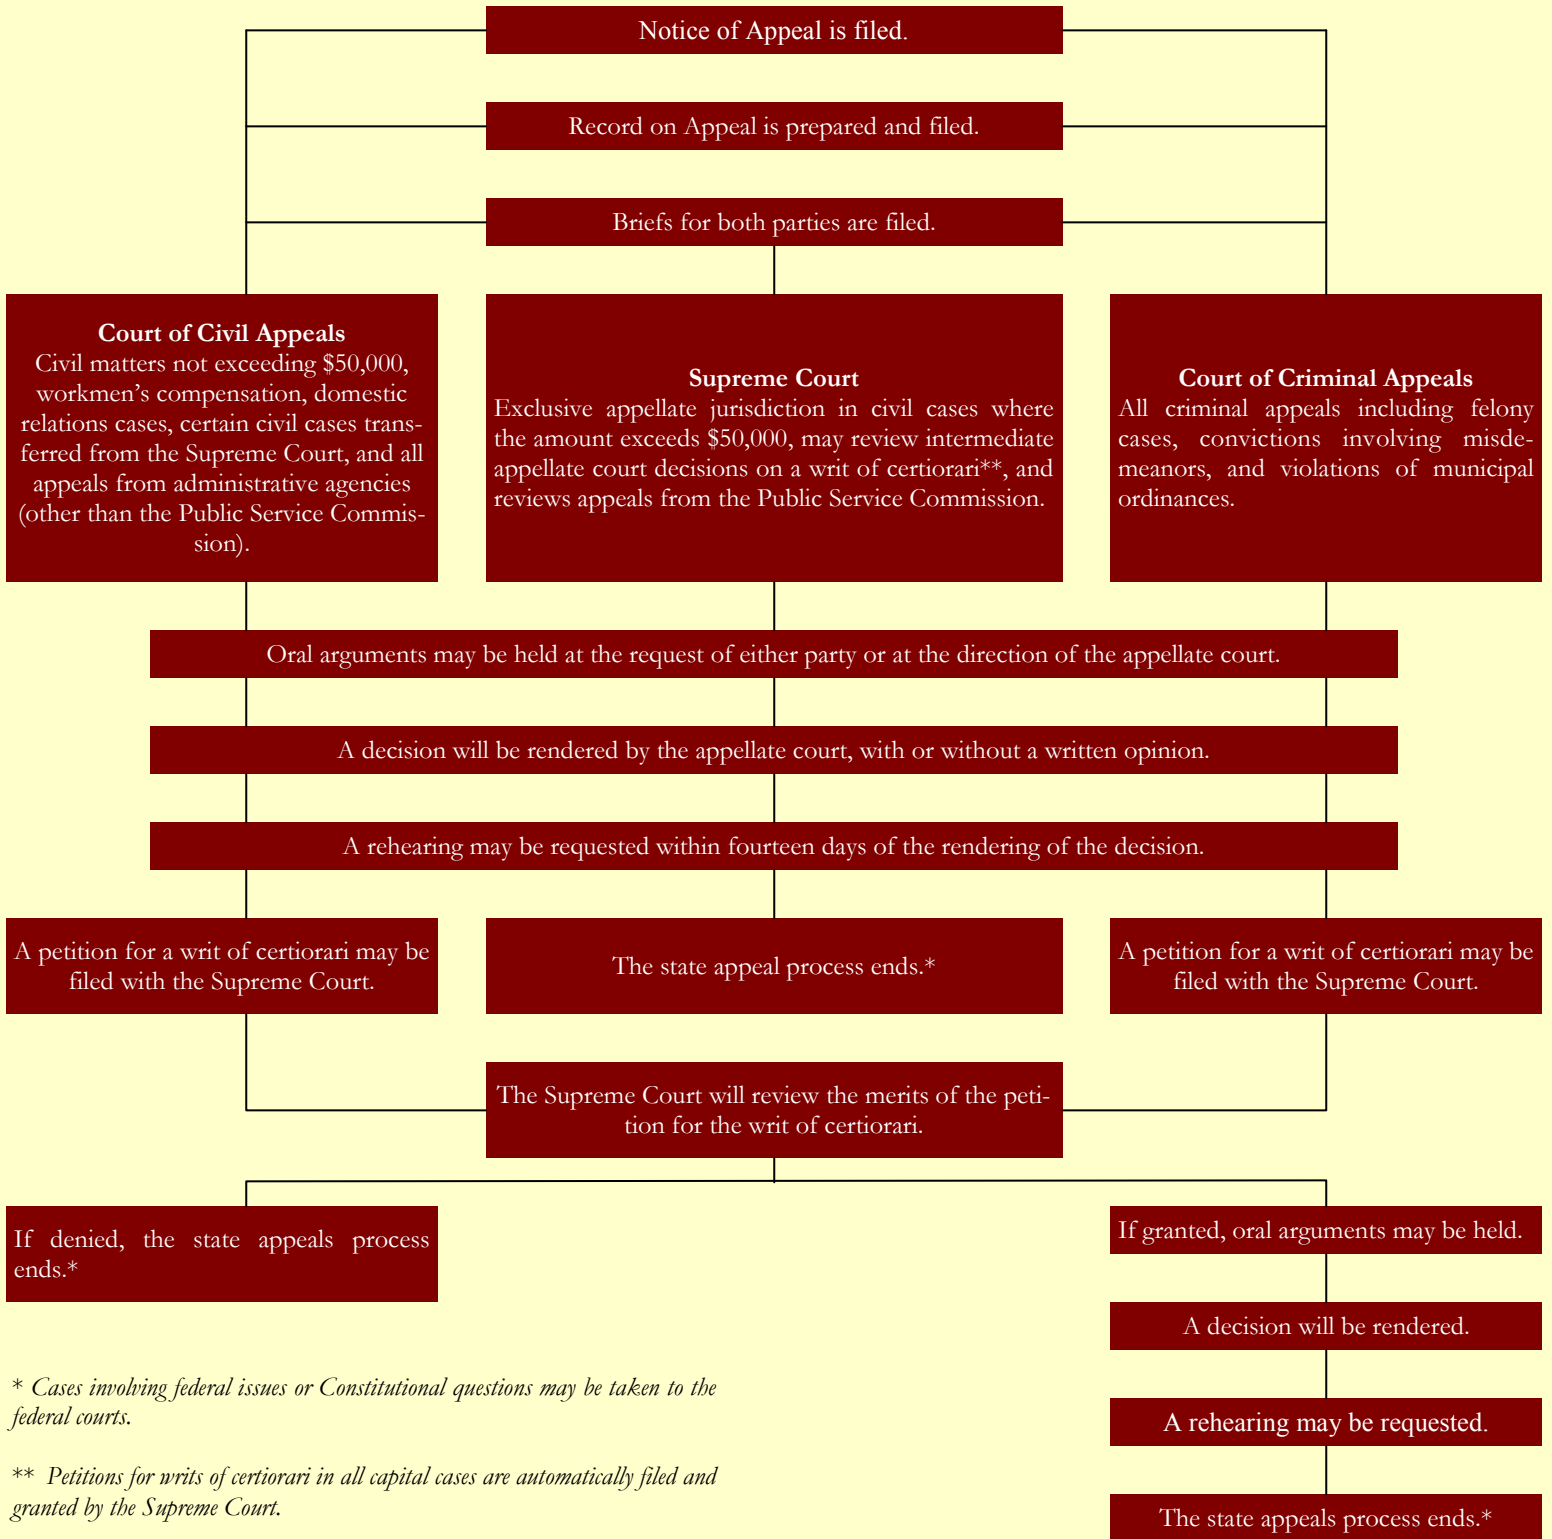

ALABAMA'S UNIFIED JUDICIAL SYSTEM STRUCTURE AND JURISDICTION

* Under the administrative authority of the Chief Justice.

 Appeals from courts of limited jurisdiction go to Circuit Court for trial de novo (a new trial).

THE APPELLATE PROCESS IN THE STATE OF ALABAMA

The Supreme Court of Alabama, Alabama's court of last resort, is composed of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices. All members of the Court are elected in statewide elections to six-year terms. The Supreme Court has general supervisory authority over all courts in the State and power to review any judgment of these courts. In addition, the Supreme Court has the authority to make administrative rules and regulations to ensure the efficient and speedy administration of justice and to make and promulgate rules governing practice and procedure in all courts in the state.

To facilitate the decision-making process, the Supreme Court has traditionally been divided into two divisions with a panel of four associate justices each. The Chief Justice sits on both divisions. If the five members of a division disagree on the disposition of a particular case, the case must be submitted to the entire Court for resolution. The Court's internal rules require consideration by the full Court of petitions for certiorari review in capital cases in which the death penalty is imposed, cases declaring a statute unconstitutional, advisory opinions to the Governor or the Legislature, utility rate cases, cases overruling a previous decision of the Supreme Court, and petitions for certiorari review in instances where the Supreme Court is reversing a judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals or the Court of Civil Appeals. The Supreme Court disposed of a total of 1,509 cases during fiscal year 2013. Of that total, 544 of the cases were direct appeals and 658 were petitions for writ of certiorari. The Court considered 275 petitions for writ of mandamus, 6 certified questions, 1 advisory opinion, and 11 miscellaneous petitions. The Supreme Court transferred (“deflected”), pursuant to §12-2-7(6), Code of Alabama 1975, 193 appeals to the Court of Civil Appeals.

APPELLATE MEDIATION IN THE SUPREME COURT OF ALABAMA AND THE COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS

Appellate Mediation in the Supreme Court of Alabama and the Court of Civil Appeals began in January 2004, when the Supreme Court of Alabama initiated an appellate mediation program for any civil case within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Alabama or the Court of Civil Appeals and adopted the Alabama Rules of Appellate Mediation.

The program screens civil cases, identifying those cases appropriate for mediation. If a case is referred to mediation, mediation is mandatory but settlement is not. This program gives the parties an opportunity to discuss alternatives to the judgment entered by the trial court and possible ruling by the appellate court. Rather than have a situation where only one party wins and the other loses, the parties can work out a solution amenable to both. Because cases are usually referred to mediation prior to the record preparation and briefing, mediation has the added benefit of reducing the cost of litigation.

Per the figures below, 47% of completed Supreme Court cases referred to mediation during the fiscal year 2012-2013 reached full settlement. Additionally, 46% of completed mediation cases for the Court of Civil Appeals reached full settlement. The program has proven to be a great success. Since the program’s inception in January of 2004, completed cases referred to Appellate Mediation from both the Supreme Court and the Court of Civil Appeals have an annual average of 51% settlement rate.

ALABAMA COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

The Alabama Court of Criminal Appeals is a five-judge court having exclusive appellate jurisdiction of all criminal cases, including all post-conviction writs arising therefrom. The Court has authority to issue remedial writs necessary to give it general superintendence and control over all trial courts exercising jurisdiction in criminal proceedings. Judgments of the Court of Criminal Appeals are subject to discretionary review by the Supreme Court of Alabama.

FILINGS

During the 2012-2013 Term, the Court of Criminal Appeals had a total caseload of 3,197 cases, of which 2,126 were new filings. The 2,126 filings in the 2013 Term represents a 5.67% increase in filings from the preceding term, and a 4.32% increase in filings from the number of filings five years earlier. The Court of Criminal Appeals, with 425 filings per a judge, ranks near the top nationally in the number of cases filed per judge. In fact, according to the caseload statistics maintained by the National Center for State Courts, the Court's per-judge-caseload has for the past fifteen plus years ranked at or near the top in the nation in the number of cases filed per judge.

DISPOSITIONS

In the 2013 Term, the Court of Criminal Appeals disposed of 2,165 cases — 1,514 appeals and 651 petitions. The Court's throughput for the 2012 Term was at 102%, causing the Court to begin the 2013-2014 Term with 39 fewer cases than were pending at the start of the 2012-2013 Term. (See Table 3 for an analysis of the dispositions.)

DECISIONS

The Court of Criminal Appeals issued 1,240 decision in submitted appeals during the 2012-2013 Term. Of these decisions, trial court judgments were affirmed in 989 appeals; trial court judgments were reversed and causes were remanded in 41 appeals; trial court judgments were reversed and the causes rendered in 5 appeals; 62 appeals were dismissed; 131 appeals were remanded to the trial courts with directions; 8 appeals were affirmed in part and reversed in part; and 4 appeals were transferred to other courts. Written opinions were released in 98 appeals. Memorandum petitions were released in 980 appeals. One hundred fifty-eight submitted cases were decided by order of the Court. Out of the 662 original petitions that were disposed in the 2012-2013 Term, 22 petitions (3.3% of the total) were granted by the Court.

TIME STANDARDS

In 1989, the Supreme Court, by order, set a 280-day time standards goal that ran from the notice of the appeal or the filing of a petition to the initial decision. In April 1995, the original goal was modified to conform to the Time Standards Reference Models recommended by the American Bar Association. The current goal is to issue rulings in 75% of all cases within 290 days from their start, and in 95% of all cases within 365 days. In the 2012-2013 Term, 92% of all the initial decisions of the Court of Criminal Appeals were released within 290 days, thus surpassing the 75% goal for the 290-day period by 17%, and 96% were released within 365 days, thus achieving the 95% goal for the 365-day period. In the 2012-2013 Term, the average time from start to the initial decision in all cases increased by 1 day, from 179 days in the 2011-2012 Term to 180 days in the 2012-2013 Term. The average time from start to initial decision in submitted cases remained unchanged from the 2012-2013 Term at 222 days. (See Table 4 for five year summary of Court's Time Standards Performance.)

Judge J. Elizabeth "Beth" Kellum grew up in the Tuscaloosa County town of Vance. She is the daughter of Peggy and Milton Kellum and has one brother, Brian Kellum. Growing up, Beth and her family were members of Vance Baptist Church. Beth is a product of Alabama's public-school system, graduating from Brookwood High School in 1977. Beth was her high school's representative to Alabama Girls State; she was also named a National Merit Scholar, receiving a four-year scholarship which she used to attend the University of Alabama.

Judge Kellum received both her undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Alabama -- a B.A. cum laude in May 1981, and a J.D. in May 1984. As an undergraduate, she majored in political science and minored in history; she was a Dean's List student and was also elected to Phi Beta Kappa. As a result of her interest in government and public service, she worked as a congressional intern in Washington, D.C. in 1978, interning for her Congressman, Walter Flowers -- then the representative from Alabama's Seventh District. In law school she was active in numerous activities, including the SBA Senate, Law Week, and Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity; she also clerked part-time for a local circuit judge. She was awarded the American Jurisprudence prize for Securities Regulation in 1983, and the American Jurisprudence prize for Labor Law in 1984.

Although interested in many aspects of the law, Judge Kellum was particularly drawn to public service. After completing a judicial clerkship, she was hired in 1985 by Attorney General Charles Graddick as an Assistant Attorney General. She worked in the criminal appeals division where she primarily prosecuted appeals before the Court of Criminal Appeals and the Alabama Supreme Court; however, she also handled cases in the United States District Court for the Northern, Middle, and Southern Districts of Alabama and the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. Her work as an Assistant Attorney General led to an offer to become a Staff Attorney for the Court of Criminal Appeals from 1987 until 1990.

Judge Kellum then went into private practice with the Montgomery law firm of Robison & Belser, P.A., working on a wide variety of civil and criminal cases in state and federal courts that dealt with diverse and complex legal issues. While Judge Kellum enjoyed private practice and the challenging cases she worked on, she realized that she had never lost her desire for public service -- a desire that led her back to the Court of Criminal Appeals in 1997 to work as a Senior Staff Attorney for the newly-elected Judge Jean Brown. She worked as a Senior Staff Attorney for the Alabama Supreme Court from 1999 until 2001, before returning to the Court of Criminal Appeals as the Senior Staff Attorney for then newly-elected Judge Kelli Wise. After working with appellate judges on a day-to-day basis, she qualified as a candidate for the Court of Criminal Appeals and was elected to the Court in November 2008.

Judge Kellum is a member of the First Baptist Church of Montgomery. She has served as a docent at the Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts, and is a member of a number of professional, civic, and political organizations -- including the Montgomery County Bar Association, Farrah Law Alumni Society, Alabama Bench and Bar Historical Society, League of Women Voters, Federalist Society, Landmarks Foundation of Montgomery, and various Republican organizations. Her hobbies include reading, bridge, traveling, genealogy, and music.

ALABAMA COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS

The Court of Civil Appeals, composed of a presiding judge and four associate judges, was created by the Alabama Legislature in 1969. The Court has original appellate jurisdiction in all civil appeals where the amount in controversy does not exceed $50,000; in all appeals from administrative agencies, other than the Alabama Public Service Commission; in all appeals in workers' compensation cases; and in all appeals in domestic relations cases, including annulment, divorce, adoption, and child custody. All decisions of the Court are made en banc. Each judge is required to review each case submitted to the Court.

For TY 2013, the Court of Civil Appeals reported a total caseload of 1,848 cases. This figure includes 1,106 new filings and 665 cases that, at the close of the previous term, were not ready for submission, were on rehearing, or were on review to the Supreme Court of Alabama.

The Court of Civil Appeals disposed of 1,183 cases. Of this number, 288 cases or 24.35% were decided with written opinions.

ALABAMA COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS

During TY 2013 the Court disposed of 1,183 cases: 288 were decided with opinion; 387 were affirmed without opinion; and 508 were disposed before submission. The average time from notice of appeal to written opinion was 239 days, compared to 236 days for TY 2013.

Of the 675 cases disposed by opinion and summary affirmance, the Court affirmed the judgment of 68.89%, reversed the judgment in 13.33%, in 4.74% of the cases the judgment was affirmed in part and reversed in part; and 13.04% were disposed by dismissal or other reason.

SUPREME COURT AND STATE LAW LIBRARY

The Alabama Supreme Court and State Law Library is the oldest law library in Alabama. Established in 1828 as the Library Society of the Bench and Bar of the Supreme Court, it was a private, non-profit organization with the purpose of providing a library for the “exclusive use of the Bench and Bar of the Supreme Court of the State.” In the late 1800s, when the law library became a state agency, it was Alabama’s largest research library and continues that tradition today, serving the Supreme Court of Alabama, the Courts of Criminal and Civil Appeals, and all citizens of Alabama.

The Law Library has approximately 235,000 volumes in its collection, making it the second largest law library in the State. The Library is also one of the oldest United States Government Depository libraries in the United States, having been designated a depository in 1884. Currently, the Law Library occupies approximately 38,000 square feet. It is a public law library, and its hours of operation are 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The Law Library collection contains all of the reported decisions of the state and federal appellate courts in the United States, and the statutes of all 50 states and the District of Columbia, plus Acts of Congress, the United States Code, and the regulations of the various agencies of the United States Government. The Law Library’s legal periodical collection is one of the best in the State with more than 1,000 titles, while its rare book collection is considered one of the finest in the southeastern United States. Unique to the collection are the briefs of the Alabama Supreme Court cases beginning in 1965, and the papers of the Alabama Judicial College.

Beyond the role of the tradition library, the Supreme Court and State Law Library continues to pursue a strategic plan to remain on the forefront of technology. To this end, the Law Library provides public access to Westlaw and LexisNexis, computer-assisted legal research services, to all users so that they have access to the most sophisticated legal research engines available. In this same way, the Law Library provides Westlaw and Lexis access to the entire Judicial Branch of Government so that judges, clerks, and other judicial branch employees will have access to legal information at their fingertips. Additionally, the Law Library has its own computerized public access catalog known as Aladdin, which includes the online catalogs of the Jefferson County Public Law Library, the Montgomery County Public Law Library, and the Elbert Parsons Public Law Library in Huntsville. Aladdin can be access from the Law Library website, www.alalinc.net.

The Law Library manages a state-of-the-art computer training lab equipped with workstations to accommodate an instructor and up to eighteen students. The Law Library also maintains Alalinc, an information service providing access to electronic copies of Alabama’s appellate court opinions as they are released. Opinions are fully searchable using an advanced search engine that allows users a large range of search capabilities. The Law Library showcases the Heflin-Torbert Judicial Building and the history of the courts through a public education program which includes the museum exhibits, plus guided tours of the Judicial Building.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF COURTS

The Chief Justice of the Alabama Supreme Court is the chief administrative officer of the State's court system and is authorized to appoint an Administrative Director of Courts (ADC) and other personnel to assist in the performance of administrative responsibilities. This constitutionally created entity overseeing Alabama's Unified Judiciary is called the Administrative Office of Courts (AOC).

The Alabama Unified Judicial System is a state-funded court system consisting of the Supreme Court and two intermediate courts of appeal, the Court of Criminal Appeals and the Court of Civil Appeals. The systems also includes the trial courts of general jurisdictions (the circuit courts) and the courts of limited jurisdiction (the district, probate, and municipal courts). Municipal courts receive training and technical assistance from the AOC although judges and court personnel are selected by and answerable to their city governments. Probate judges and their staff are county employees.

The AOC, under the direction of the Administrative Director of Courts, is charged with providing the centralized, state-level administrative support necessary to the operation of the State court system, which includes the development of improved procedures and systems to increase the operational capacity of the courts, the collection and dissemination of information necessary for the development of policy, and the efficient operation of the courts. Alabama was one of the first states in the nation to have a unified state courts system with uniform procedures and centralized administrative services. The Unified Judicial System of Alabama (UJS) has been in existence since 1977.

The AOC carries out its responsibilities through a network of specialized divisions. This necessary link within the court system successfully implements plans addressing the training, educational, and developmental needs of officials and employees of the Unified Judicial System. These tasks are implemented in part by and through the Alabama Judicial College, along with the support of statewide technological expertise and implementation of the Information Technology Divisions.

The AOC also houses basic support departments such as Human Resources and Finance, but there exists more specialized departments such as the Family Court Division, the Legal Division, and the Public Information Office. The AOC is most specifically made up of talented individuals from many walks of life serving the needs of their fellow citizens.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY DIVISION

The Information Technology (IT) Division provides the support necessary for the day-to-day business operations of the Unified Judicial System both in the trial courts and the Administrative Office of Courts. The IT Division aids in the enhancement of administrative functions using technology and coordinates with state agencies regarding sharing of services and information. The IT Division makes available public information to the criminal justice community, social and juvenile services, and the public as a whole. Additionally, this division offers online services to all 67 counties at all court sites, juvenile offices, and pardons and paroles offices. Finally, the IT Division maintains current UJS applications as well as new developments and upgrades.

The IT Division, the largest area of operation within the AOC, is responsible for the development and maintenance of automation within the UJS. The sections in this area include: Applications Programming, Information Technology Support, Information Technology Helpdesk, Mainframe, and Networking.

APPLICATIONS PROGRAMMING

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF COURTS

This section is responsible for the development and the maintenance of all automated systems supporting the information management needs of the UJS. This section designs, develops, tests, implements and maintains the mainframe and server-based applications that comprise the Alabama Statewide Judicial Information Systems (SJIS).

Project management functions are provided to judicial system contractors and business partners. On a daily basis, this section performs system analysis, develops product specifications, tests, approves and implements new systems, and serves as a mediator between user groups and contractors.

One of the premiere case management applications in the nation can be found in Alabama; MIDAS (Model Integrated Defendant Access System) was developed for use by Alabama Court Referral Officers in 2003. The application allows users the opportunity to manage offenders from one application; court records, criminal and driving histories and case management functionality are available in one location.

In 2005, MIDAS was rewritten with new functionality that allowed Drug Courts, District Attorneys, and Community Corrections Officers to utilize the application. In 2007, MIDAS was rewritten for the third time. The Board of Pardons and Paroles noticed the efficiency of MIDAS and decided to take the MIDAS application and modify it to meet their needs. The Board of Pardons and Paroles identifies their version as ISIS (Integrated Supervision Information System). Also in 2007, Juvenile Probation Officers saw the impact MIDAS was making as a complete defendant case management tool and released their version of MIDAS, named JUPITIR (Juvenile Probation Intake Treatment Integrated Resource), in the summer of 2009.

In 2013, the Court Referral Education Program (CREP) was added to the MIDAS application and is currently being piloted by several locations with the goal of adding 2 locations per month out of a total of 25 CREP programs in the state. This module is used to provide a link between the Court Referral Officers and the CREP; it will allow the instructors to manage their own bookkeeping, journals, provide class management and inform the Court Referral Officers of the completion of classes by their defendants.

In 2013, the eWorksheets application was rewritten with enhanced security and functionality along with a significant amount of upgrades to better serve the courts using the latest technology. This application is used to complete sentencing worksheets by District Attorneys and other court staff in all counties, whereas prior to legislation changes on October 1st, 2013, only a handful of counties utilized the application. From October 1st 2013 to February 5th, 2014 approximately 7,700 worksheets have been entered into the system.

In February 2010, a new in-house helpdesk trouble ticketing system was deployed. SHARK (Service Helpdesk Assistance Repair and Knowledge) provides an avenue for UJS users to report and track technical support issues by submitting a “ticket” via a website interface. SHARK allows user requests for assistance to be acted upon in a timelier manner than previous error reporting methods.

In 2012, the UJS Portal was created to provide a centralized website for court staff to get the latest news and updated forms and manuals.

The Applications Staff is currently working on numerous projects that are scheduled for deployment during the next 12 months. These projects include the following:

- Modernization of the eTranscripts Application. The eTranscripts application is a web-based tool designed to assist the Clerk’s Office and the Department of Corrections in creating and processing electronic transcripts. This application is being rewritten from the ground-up utilizing the most current technology available.

- Modernization of the Conferences Application. The Conferences application is a web-based tool designed to assist Judicial College in managing training and conference registrations for court staff. This application is being rewritten from the ground-up utilizing the most current technology available to provide better conference and training management along with CLE/CEU tracking.
- SharePoint Proliferation Project. Extensive deployment of approximately 100 Sharepoint-based websites for Circuit Clerks, Judges, and other judicial entities. The primary users of these sites will have the ability to update their site's content as required.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (IT) SUPPORT

The Information Technology (IT) Support section provides training and support of technology related projects. Typical project management duties include staffing a telephone support desk and ticket management system, application training, video conferencing, preparing narrative reports, preparing manuals, creating online tutorials, testing of applications, and processing requirements for application development. IT Support serves as the liaison between the users and the technical staff. Goals for 2014 include the continued development, implementation and training of statewide criminal e-filing as well as attorney fee declarations, batch e-docketing of motions and garnishments.

Since 2009, IT support has completed over 28,400 trouble tickets and assisted with nearly 50,000 calls per year. To date, there have been more than 46.4 million documents e-filed. These e-filings consisted of Complaints, Answers, Motions, Notices of Discovery, Subpoenas, and Orders. Because of technology, there are nearly 77.2 million images stored, and these images are being added to at a rate of 1.3 million new images each month. AlaPay generates more than $2 million monthly. For fiscal year 2013, AlaPay generated more than $24 million. For fiscal year 2013, AlaFile generated over $36.2 million. AlaFile revenue to date is over $157.2 million. MAINFRAME

The Mainframe section of the Administrative Office of Courts is responsible for the availability of the Statewide Judicial Information System (SJIS) which handles an average of one million transactions per day. Among these responsibilities are making sure the online aspects of the system are available and operating at optimum performance, providing assistance to users concerning report output, maintaining Mainframe equipment at user sites, and handling large volumes of mailed output.

The Mainframe system is constantly monitored to make sure there are no problems that could affect the SJIS users and others that require information from SJIS. The Mainframe section is responsible for the safety of SJIS data and provides for data integrity and timely backups of all data on a daily basis. The Mainframe section also ensures that all Mainframe software is up-to-date and configured properly as well as providing technical support to other sections of the AOC.

In 2014, the AOC will continue to work on meeting the new USPS postal requirements which are changing almost weekly. This will allow the system to continue to get the best rates when sending out the daily mailers. As usual, IBM will be releasing updates to the operating system and the other software vendors will be doing the same type updates. This year the AOC hopes to begin converting the tape backups from physical tapes to virtual tapes and installing software to help manage the virtual tapes. Doing this will allow the removal of physical tape equipment and save the associated hardware cost. For the past few years, the AOC has been using both physical and virtual tapes.

There has been some renewed interest in upgrading SJIS to have a look and feel closer to the PC-based applications and staff has been researching software that will allow those changes without having to re-write the applications. The result will be a more user-friendly and intuitive display to provide “E-SJIS.”

PRINTSHOP

The AOC Print Shop is responsible for producing envelopes for all of the UJS officials as well as multipart forms and other products as requested. New envelope printing equipment has been installed allowing much faster order turn around and service to the courts. The reduced cost of supplies for the new printer has resulted in cost savings, as well as providing better service.

NETWORKING/IT HELPDESK

Information Technology (IT) Infrastructure Management is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Alabama Unified Judicial System’s network and servers, providing services to over 3,000 users spread over 125 locations utilizing server and networking resources located at the Alabama Judicial Building Data Center. Helpdesk personnel receive 1,000 calls for assistance each month.

Responsible for engineering and managing:

- Wired and wireless connectivity (T1, DSL, MPLS)
- Firewalls, virus, and spam protection
- Servers and databases
- Remote network access via VPN clients
- 24/7 monitoring and problem resolution
- Authentication and authorization services through Active Directory
- Point-to-point data connections to outside agencies
- Electronic Mail Services

ACCOUNTABILITY COURTS

The relationship between substance abuse, criminal activity, violence, increasing court caseloads, prison overcrowding, recidivism, death, and injury are well documented. Costs associated with these problems are staggering in terms of financial hardship as well as human tragedy.

DRUG COURTS

Alabama currently faces severe issues with prison overcrowding. Model Drug Courts are one way of dealing with this problem. Drug Courts represent the coordinated efforts of the judiciary, prosecution, defense, probation, law enforcement, mental health, social services, and the treatment community to actively and forcefully intervene and break the cycle of substance abuse, addiction, and crime.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF COURTS

Currently, there are 70 adult Drug Courts in 66 of Alabama's 67 counties. On average, there are 3,000 active adult Drug Court participants each month in Alabama. Drug Courts are utilized as an alternative sentencing method to: (1) assist non-violent offenders who have committed offenses while under the influence of alcohol or drugs to be given the opportunity to turn their lives around, and (2) make the public safer while reducing the demand for prison space. Alabama also features several other Problem-Solving Courts (specialized courts modeled after Drug Courts focused on addressing other underlying issues of chronic criminal behaviors) including Juvenile Drug Courts, Family Drug Courts, Veterans Courts, Domestic Violence Courts, and Mental Health Courts.

COURT REFERRAL OFFICER AND EDUCATION PROGRAMS

The Court Referral Officer (CRO) Program began in 1985 as a pilot program to assist judges in early identification and placement of DUI offenders as one method of reducing the devastating problem of drunk driving. Since the implementation of the Mandatory Treatment Act of 1990, Court Referral Officers have provided services to defendants in a broader spectrum of cases related to alcohol and drug use or abuse. The CRO and Court Referral Education Programs are Alabama's legacy programs when dealing with alcohol and drug offenses.

CROs are a key ingredient in Alabama's comprehensive approach to the management of cases involving substance abuse or other related issues. Utilizing the Operational Screening Criteria they provide a thorough evaluation and make the appropriate recommendations for each defendant. This important information will ensure placement of each defendant in the most appropriate program to supplement traditional judicial sanctions.

Local Court Referral Programs were developed to assist defendants with alcohol and drug abuse-related offenses with education and/or treatment referral services to be able to act as "resource brokers" within local communities. These programs have been designed to be used in conjunction with court orders and not as a replacement for judicial sanctions.

In fiscal year 2013, 25,423 defendants were evaluated and referred for education or treatment. Of these defendants, 4,260 were placed in the Level I education programs, 10,666 were placed in the Level II education programs, 8,767 were referred to Level III outpatient or inpatient programs and 84 were placed in the Youth & Juvenile Course. There were more than 135,227 monitoring sessions conducted in 2013.

The AOC certifies and contracts with 25 agencies to provide alcohol and drug education programs and more than 100 CROs to evaluate defendants and provide monitoring sessions throughout the state. The Court Referral Program receives no General Fund monies.

Many Community Corrections and Drug Court programs across Alabama include Court Referral Officers. The meshing of these important programs has been met with broad success.

TRIAL COURTS

The Trial Courts Section of the IT Division serves the trial courts through the SJIS Helpdesk, Traffic Call Center, Income Tax Intercept Program, and Accounting/Bookkeeping Program. In fiscal year 2013, there were 692,208 filings and 706,230 dispositions in District Courts. In Circuit Courts, there were 207,913 filings and 208,015 dispositions.

The Income Tax Intercept Program interacts with the public, as well as the trial courts, in providing information that streamlines the collection of court-ordered monies and assists circuit clerk's offices by diverting information inquiries to a central location. In fiscal year 2013, $1,590,064 was recovered in delinquent court-ordered monies through this section.

The SJIS Helpdesk and Accounting/Bookkeeping Program provide technical assistance with the processes of the State Judicial Information System (SJIS) through training, manuals, inquiries, and problem resolution.

The Traffic Call Center handled 122,705 cases and collected $23,436,192.72 in court fines and fees in fiscal year 2013.

ALABAMA JUDICIAL COLLEGE

The Alabama Judicial College is charged with the implementation of a comprehensive plan that addresses the educational, developmental, and training needs of members of the Unified Judicial System. Continuing education and training programs administered by the Alabama Judicial College recognize the career development needs of court officials and employees. The Judicial College develops and coordinates over 60 meetings each year which include on-site and off-site conferences, regional trainings, and seminars for officials and employees of the circuit, district, and municipal courts. Since its inception, the Alabama Judicial College has followed a comprehensive model of adult learning theory which emphasizes continuing education of all court officials and staff to enhance the proper administration of justice.

During Fiscal Year 2013, the Alabama Judicial College planned and facilitated three (3) municipal magistrate orientation programs, 15 off-site training conferences that served over 1,250 Unified Judicial System officials and employees, one drug court and veteran's court conference where 223 participants attended and seven (7) specialty Attorney-Parent trainings in which 364 participants attended. For the fourth straight year, the largest group served was the certification and/or re-certification of Guardians Ad Litem. The Alabama Judicial College continues to have many in-house trainings and meetings with over 1,600 court officials and employees participating.

FAMILY COURT DIVISION

The Family Court Division provides services in eight different, but related, areas for the Alabama judicial system. Those areas include:

- Unified Family Courts
- Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative (JDAI)
- Juvenile Probation Services
- Access and Visitation Grant Program
- Court Improvement Program Grants
- Judicial Volunteer Program
- Child Support/Referees
- Juvenile Accountability Incentive Block Grant Program

The goal of this division is to provide a wide array of services so that the juvenile and family courts can be more efficient and effective for families and children in Alabama.

UNIFIED FAMILY COURTS

The concept of a unified family court is to place cases dealing with juvenile and family law in one court in order to serve the families more effectively and efficiently. Family Courts have been established, either by statute or local act, in the following counties:

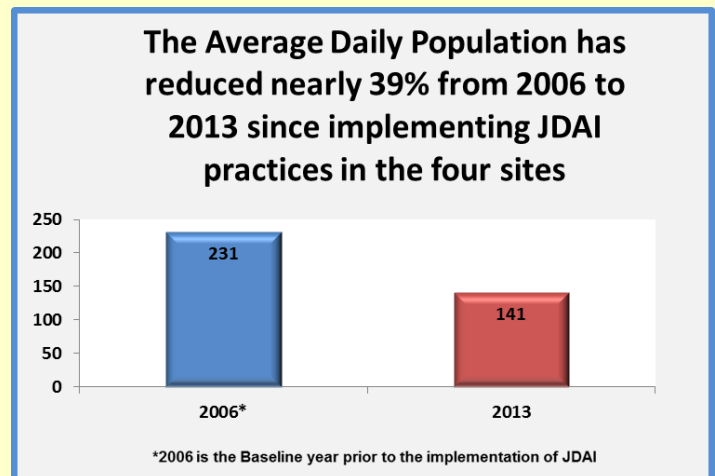

- Calhoun
- Cleburne
- Dale
- Geneva
- Henry
- Houston
- Jefferson
- Lee
- Madison
- Marshall
- Mobile
- Montgomery
- Russell
- Tuscaloosa

JUVENILE DETENTION ALTERNATIVES INITIATIVE

The Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative (JDAI) is a project of the Annie E. Casey Foundation and is designed to support their vision that all youth involved in the juvenile justice system have opportunities to develop into healthy, productive adults. JDAI focuses on the juvenile detention component of the juvenile justice system because youth who are unnecessarily or inappropriately detained are done so at great expense, and often with long-lasting, unintended consequences for both public safety and youth development.

JDAI began in Alabama with visits to four sites in the summer of 2007. The sites visited were Mobile, Montgomery, Tuscaloosa and Birmingham, and all four sites were selected to participate in the JDAI project. By 2008, JDAI sites experienced dramatic drops in the average daily population of children in secure confinement, with some sites experiencing 40% reductions.

As of 2013, JDAI sites have reduced the average daily population of children in secure confinement by nearly 39% since 2006, the year prior to the implementation of JDAI.

By continually applying the goals of JDAI statewide, there has been a similar sustained decrease in youth admitted to all juvenile detention facilities, not only in the four designated JDAI counties.

The JDAI experience has filtered throughout all levels of juvenile justice in Alabama. Through collaboration and partnership with the Alabama Department of Youth Services (DYS), admissions to DYS have dropped 47%, from over 3300 to fewer than 1800, since the beginning of the JDAI project. In the JDAI sites the reduction of children committed to DYS is 61%.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF COURTS

Even through significant budget and staff reductions in the courts and at DYS, the success of JDAI has remained a constant source of encouragement and success to the executive and judicial branches of government.

JUVENILE PROBATION SERVICES

The Family Court Division manages the State Juvenile Probation Officer Program, which was created in 2000 in response to the mandate of the Alabama Legislature in Ala. Code of 1975, § 12-5A-1 that a comprehensive system of juvenile probation services be developed, implemented, and administered by the Administrative Office of Courts.

Juvenile probation officers are an integral part of the juvenile justice system. Juvenile probation officers perform a variety of services which are essential to the proper operation of the juvenile courts including working primarily with youths who are alleged to be delinquent or in need of supervision.

The functions of the Family Court Division, with respect to juvenile probation officers, include the establishment of statewide guidelines, certification, and training standards. As of 9/30/2013, there were 296 juvenile probation officers statewide. Of those, 187 were employed by the Unified Judicial System, along with 26 UJS juvenile support personnel. These personnel serve 62 of Alabama's 67 counties. The program provides juvenile probation salary subsidies to the five counties in which juvenile probation officers are county employees.

ACCESS AND VISITATION GRANT PROGRAM

The Administrative Office of Courts, through the Family Court Division, administers the federally-funded Access and Visitation Grant Program, the goal of which is to develop programs and services to improve noncustodial parents' access to and visitation with their children. Funds from the grant are primarily used to fund subgrantee programs that provide mediation of visitation issues and parenting education programs.

COURT IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM (CIP) GRANTS

BASIC CIP GRANT

The Basic CIP grant is a federally-funded program that has been administered by the AOC since FY 1995. The goal of the grant is to streamline juvenile court procedures and processes so that children adjudicated dependent may be placed in safe, permanent homes as quickly as possible. The primary activities of the Grant include the following:

- Guardian ad Litem (GAL) Certification and Recertification Training (Note: As of 9/30/2013, 1,209 attorneys were on the certified GAL appointment list)
- Parents' Attorney Training
- Probate/Juvenile Judge Subcommittee
- Collaborative Activities with the Alabama Department of Human Resources (DHR)
- Assessment of the Alabama Juvenile and Family Courts
- Four Pilot Juvenile courts (Mobile, Tuscaloosa, Lauderdale and Marshall Counties)

- Creation of Guidelines for Handling Domestic Violence Issues in Dependency Cases

CIP TRAINING GRANT

Beginning in September 2006, the AOC, through the Family Court Division, began administering a grant from the federal government primarily to be utilized for training initiatives. The primary objectives of this grant include training new juvenile and family court judges, administrative support assistants, and other juvenile court officials and employees on various topics when needed.

CIP DATA COLLECTION AND ANALYSIS GRANT

Beginning in September 2006, the AOC, through the Family Court Division, began administering another grant from the federal government primarily to be utilized for data collection and analysis to help ensure that foster children's needs for safety, permanency, and well-being are met in a timely and complete manner. Primary activities include the following:

- Continual updating and revising current data collection methods
- Developing cross system collaboration between existing state systems
- Developing and implementing enhancements to the electronic information systems

THE JUDICIAL VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

By order of the Supreme Court of Alabama dated January 19, 2000, effective March 1, 2000, Rule 42, Alabama Rules of Judicial Administration, was adopted allowing the use of a Judicial Volunteer Program in those circuit or district courts choosing to do so.

Carefully screened, interviewed, and trained citizen-volunteers are utilized in appropriate programs to assist in the court process. As of 9/30/2013, there were eight judicial volunteer programs throughout Alabama. Most programs have a judicial volunteer program coordinator overseeing these programs.

One aspect of the Judicial Volunteer Program is the Juvenile Conference Committee. Juvenile Conference Committees are authorized pursuant to Rule 15.1, Alabama Rules of Juvenile Procedure. Through the use of Juvenile Conference Committees, a large percentage of petitions filed in juvenile court can be diverted and disposed of expeditiously. The Juvenile Court can then devote more time to dealing with the serious and repeat juvenile offenders.

Another aspect of the Judicial Volunteer Program is district court mediation in which trained volunteers are used as mediators in specific cases in district court, mostly small claims.

CHILD SUPPORT

The Alabama Central Disbursement Division (ACDD) is a division that was established as a result of a federal law known as the Welfare Reform Act of 1996. This law required a single location in each state where employers could send wage-withheld child support payments to be processed. In FY 2013, $163,810,805.27 was collected and disbursed.

Non IV-D payments (or wage withheld payments not processed through the Alabama Department of Human Resources) are receipted at a central location and are disbursed by the ACDD. Payments are receipted one day and then disbursed by direct deposit or paper check to the recipient the next business day.

During FY 2013, there were 9 full-time and 11 part-time referees who served 17 counties. Nine part-time referees heard child support cases and were 66% funded by the Alabama Department of Human Resources.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF COURTS

JUVENILE ACCOUNTABILITY INCENTIVE BLOCK GRANT (JAIBG) PROGRAM

During FY 2013, the JAIBG provided financial support to the positions of the Juvenile Data Analyst and a programmer position at the Administrative Office of Courts. This grant also provided support for the web-based juvenile intake and case management application and juvenile probation services equipment needs.

FINANCE DIVISION

The Finance Division of the Administrative Office of Courts, under the direction of the UJS Finance Director, is charged with the professional management of all funding resources allocated to the AOC and the judicial trial courts of the State of Alabama. Support services are provided in the areas of budget preparation, accounting, purchasing, executive contract reviews, state agency contracts, county expense claims, property inventory, records management, and UJS expenditure management. The Finance Director serves as a liaison with the appellate courts regarding fiscal matters and responds to questions pertaining to judicial finances from the Alabama legislature and executive branches of government. The total budget allocated to the trial courts and the Administrative Office of Courts for fiscal year 2013 was $177,568,258.

Grants awarded to the Administrative Office of Courts and trust accounts are administered by the grants accountant and the various project managers, in accordance with the appropriate policies and procedures. Expenditure vouchers are processed by accounting staff in accordance with procedures administered by the State Comptroller, as well as the monthly balancing of all revenues and expenditures. The UJS Finance Division participates in financial and property audits as scheduled and coordinated with the State Examiner of Public Accounts and Office of the State Auditor to ensure compliance with all State government procedures and accountability.

Additionally, the responsibilities of the UJS Finance Division include juror payments. Approximately 55,529 jurors served the Circuit Courts of Alabama from October 1, 2012, through September 30, 2013. Juror payments totaled $1,526,823.20 in FY 2013.

The Unified Judicial System currently has approximately 10,329 active State property assets with a value of $500 or more. These commodities are currently included on the statewide UJS inventory with an acquisition value in excess of $13,961,970.05. The Finance Division has the responsibility of overseeing property management within the Alabama circuit and district courts and the AOC for state-owned commodities.

HUMAN RESOURCES DIVISION

The Human Resources Division of the Administrative Office of Courts provides a full range of human resource services to the Judicial Branch of Government and the general public. Direct support is provided to approximately 1,974 Unified Judicial System officials and employees. As of December 2013, these officials and employees include 146 appellate judges and employees, 1,742 trial court officials and employees (appx. 420 are county funded employees), 3 Alabama Sentencing Commission employees, and 79 Administrative Office of Courts staff.

PERSONNEL OPERATIONS

The personnel operations section of this division processes all personnel actions. In fiscal year 2013, more than 2,840 separate actions were processed manually, including appointments, separations, leaves without pay, three and six month probationary paperwork, and longevity bonuses, as well as other miscellaneous actions such as tax, address, and name changes. The operations section maintains all employee personnel records and position controls for the Judicial Branch of Government, using an automated information system and periodic reports. This section also audits all Unified Judicial System payrolls and certifies state service for the annual longevity bonus and conducts background checks and E-verify for applicants for pre-employment screening process.

PAYROLL OPERATIONS

The payroll section of Human Resources Division provides or processes services such as: daily data entry, timesheets, one-time pay, supplemental pay, circuit clerks' restitution, reimbursement checks, mail-outs of payroll warrants, tracks payroll warrants, Title IV-D payments, duplicate/cancelled warrants, county supplements, FICA cut offs, W-2 requests through the year, JPO fund updates, insurance, reimbursement for separated/terminated/retired employees, longevity bonuses, deferred compensation (e.g., Great-West, RSA-1, United Way) funding source/organization code changes, unemployment compensation, insurance billing, direct deposits, employment verifications, retirement contributions, and miscellaneous deductions.

FRINGE BENEFITS

The Human Resources Division is responsible for monitoring a leave program (HRDesktop) for approximately 1,500 leave-earning UJS employees. Because leave represents a potential debt of the UJS, the Human Resources Division audits leave accounts annually. In calendar year 2013, the AOC and the trial courts' total leave liability exceeded $13,000,000.00 and separation costs exceeded $1,200,007.75.

TESTING AND RECRUITMENT

For fiscal year 2013, approximately 55 applicants took the written court specialist examinations that were given in State of Alabama. In addition to maintaining the open and promotional court specialist registers, the division issued numerous special job announcements for positions at the AOC, the trial courts, the appellate courts, and the State Law Library. Approximately, 500 applications were received from these announcements.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

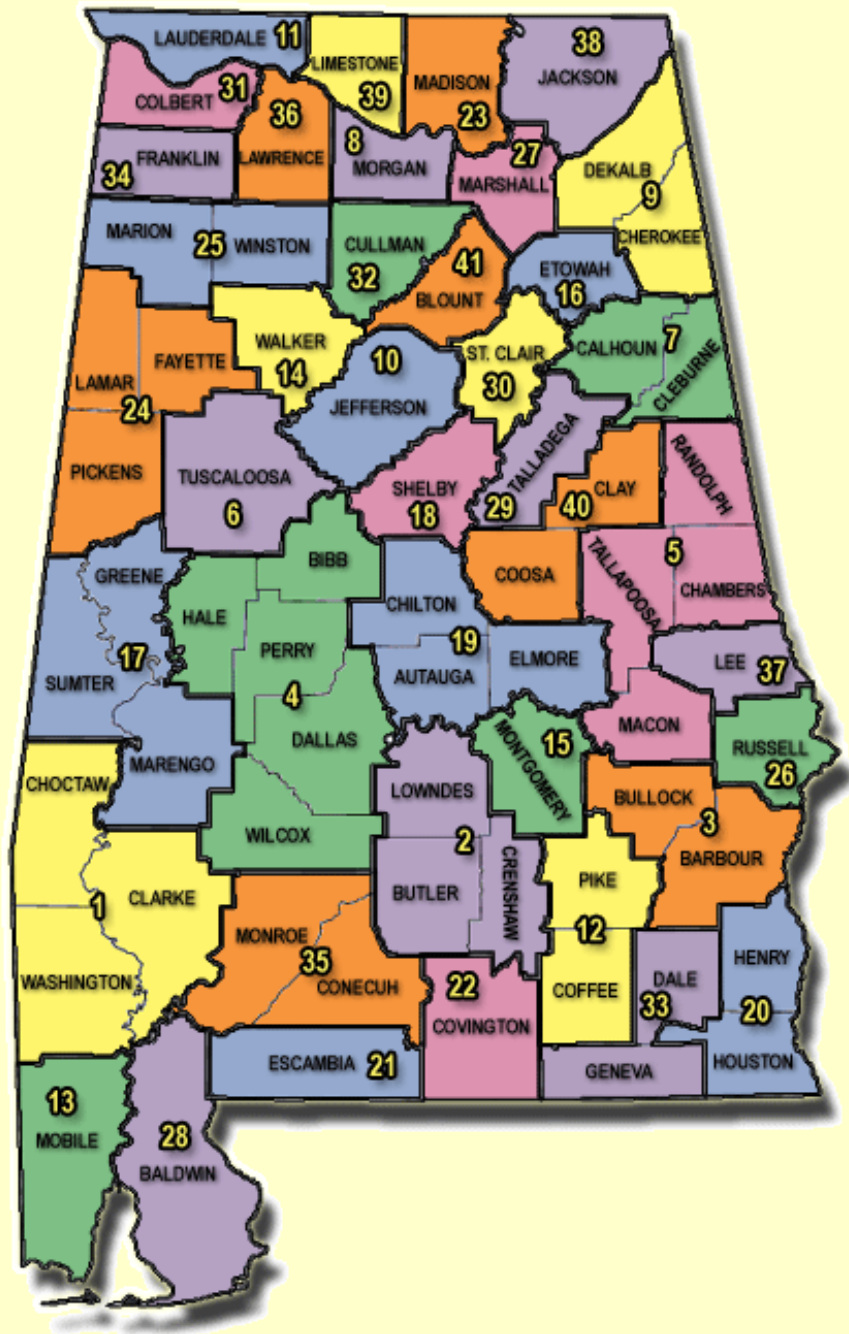

As of December 2013, there were 437 minorities employed in the UJS. This included 46 elected officials. Minorities comprised 22.14 percent of the total Unified Judicial System work force. The Human Resources Director is also the EEOC Officer for the UJS.

LEGAL DIVISION

The Legal Division assists the Chief Justice, the Administrative Director of Courts, Alabama's circuit and district judges, circuit clerks and AOC's division directors in resolving legal issues that arise in the performance of their respective duties, and in the daily operation and administration of the United Judicial System. The Division provides court officials and court staff with updates on changes to statutory and case law, rules of court and court procedural manuals. In addition, the Legal Division oversees the development and implementation of electronic forms and filing procedures, manages the court interpreter certification programs, assists in resolving case and jury management issues, and ensures the expeditious release of public information. Legal Division staff attorneys routinely serve as Judicial College faculty members, providing needed instruction at periodic training sessions and conferences. Upon request, staff attorneys conduct legal research and discuss legal issues with judges and other court officials.

In addition, the legislative function is staffed by the Legal Division to provide a liaison between court and legislative officials on court-related matters.

The courthouse was remodeled and expanded in 1955. It was altered and remodeled again in 1988.
